

Development and post-crisis reforms of the Basel Capital Standards

Guest Lecture (in English) by Daniel Zuberbühler, former CEO of the Swiss Federal Banking Commission SFBC, former Vice-chairman of FINMA, representing SFBC and FINMA in the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision from 1996 to 2010.

Thursday, 8 June, 14.15 – 18.15, Bern, UniS, Schanzeneckstrasse 1, Room A-122. The entrance is free of charge, the number of seats is limited to 70, first come first served, with priority to CAS Financial Regulation students and alumni.

Daniel Zuberbühler will explain in two sessions of 90 minutes how the Basel Capital Standards started in 1988 and how they developed to become the 616 pages all encompassing international capital standards “soft law” of today. He will address the shortcomings of Basel 3 and comment on the ongoing discussion on the right level of capital for global international banks. The lecture is open free of charge to anybody interested in the development of capital standards for banks.

Topics

1. Basics of capital definition and capital ratios
2. Basel Committee on Banking Supervision – how does it work
3. History of international capital regulation: Basel 1, 1.5 and 2
4. Lessons learned from the crisis: more and better quality capital & liquidity
5. Basel 2.5 and Basel 3
6. Too big to fail (TBTF)
7. Review of Basel 3 – Basel 3.5?